Americans with Disabilities Act: Please call Peggy DiMaio at 800-336-7323 x231 or e-mail at pdimaio@reading.org with any special needs requests as defined by ADA or fax 302-731-1274 no later than February 4, 2010. On-site requests cannot be guaranteed.

Cancellations: Cancellations must be received at IRA Headquarters by February 4, 2010. After this date, there will be no refunds for cancellations of any type or for no-shows. A processing fee of US$50.00 for each individual refund will be assessed.

Clock Hours: The International Reading Association is pleased to recognize educators who pursue continual improvements in their field. If you participate in any Association-sponsored professional development activity, such as literacy groups, conferences, or our annual convention, we will keep track of these hours. These clock hours may be used as a part of a professional development sequence approved by local school districts. Your district can provide information about the specific clock-hour requirements in your state. Clock-hour forms must be filled out and returned during the conference in the registration area. After the conference, attendees will have the opportunity to access this information from home or office.
