LOCAL COUNCIL

Join IRA, ORA, and your local council today!

The International Reading Association is the largest professional organization devoted exclusively to the improvement of reading instruction and the worldwide promotion of lifetime literacy. The Oregon Reading Association and its local councils carry out this mission at the state and community levels.

As a student, you are an important part of the reading scene today. Full-time undergraduate or full-time graduate students interested in the field of teaching are invited to join IRA, ORA, and the local council at a special reduced rate of $42! (Regular members pay a total of $94.) This is a special deal offered by the Oregon Reading Association. Regular IRA student membership is $42. Add ORA and your local council ($25) and your total is $67. So, You save $25 on membership in three excellent organizations! With your membership you will receive an IRA journal of your choice.

We must ask that you indicate on the membership form which college or university you attend and obtain a signature from a professor indicating you are an undergraduate or enrolled in a graduate program.

You MUST have an OREGON address and attend a college or university within the state of Oregon to participate in this offer.

ORA Student Conference Registration:

For an additional $8 you may register for the upcoming ORA Student Conference to be held in Portland at Concordia University, April 14, 2012.

Note: If you are not sure yet if you will be able to attend the conference, you can send the $42 for membership now and then send $8 later if you decide to attend.
