Bibliography.

Arbuthnot, May Hill. The Arbuthnot Anthology of Children's Literature. (Scott, Foresman). I happen to have the third edition.

Briggs, Katharine. British Folk Tales and Legends

Calvino, Italo. Italian Folktales

Cole, Joanna. Best Loved Folk-Tales of the World (Anchor, 1982)

Crossley-Holland, Kevin. Folk tales of the British Isles

Delarue, Paul. Borzoi Book of French Folktales

Kipling, Rudyard. Just So Stories

Peck, Catherine. Treasury of North American Folktales

Ragan, Kathleen . Fearless Girls, Wise Women and Beloved Sisters

Yolen, Jane. Favorite Folktales from Around the World. (Pantheon, 1986). Warning: a few tales in this collection are anatomically explicit, so do not read any aloud until you have read them silently first.

For reference:

The Storyteller's Sourcebook by Margaret Read MacDonald. This index lists stories by title, subject and motif. Find it in the Eugene Public Library, Ref + 016.398 M145

Index to Fairy Tales by Norma Olin Ireland. Lists tales by subject. Ref +016.398 Ea 79

Pantheon books has a fine series of folk tale books.
