

CHOOSE FOUR: A FOCUS ON BEGINNINGS

Name _____ Date _____

Choose four of the six nominated books and read the beginning of each book. Pay attention to how each story begins. Authors want readers to be interested, so they usually start their stories with a lead sentence or two that will make you want to read more.

Write the titles and authors of the books you have chosen:

1. Title _____

Author _____

2. Title _____

Author _____

3. Title _____

Author _____

4. Title _____

Author _____

Put a star by the title of the book that has your favorite beginning lines.

1. Write down the important beginning sentences:

2. Why were they so important? _____

3. What information did the author give you? _____
